BATTLE SAILS

Experience the boom of cannons, minus the cannon balls (of course), close quarter maneuvers, sea shanties and tall ships stories. Get your tickets now!

Evening Sails and Private Charters Also Available

Lady Washington

Hawaiian Chieftain

Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain are authentic ships that reproduce the experience of sailing the high seas in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. We invite guests to help raise a sail, learn a sea shanty, and take the helm. Cover your ears! It's real cannon fire with real gunpowder (but no cannon balls).
